Federal service. Time-in-grade requirement applies to applicants considered under merit promotion procedures. Applicants must meet time-in-grade requirements within 45 days of the closing date of this announcement.

SELECTIVE PLACEMENT FACTOR: In order to meet minimum qualifications for this position, you must demonstrate that you possess the following selective placement factor. You must submit a one page statement, in addition to your application or resume, which addresses how you have worked as a lead analyst for an upper management official such as (Senior Executive, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or equivalent), in a high pressure office which handles sensitive or confidential information; work must have been on a regular and routine basis and not a project or a temporary assignment less than 1 year.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS (QRFs) USED IN THE RATING PROCESS: Applications will be evaluated on each of the following QRFs. To receive full credit, applicants must submit a narrative description of their experience, education, training, etc. relative to each QRF. Be specific and limit responses to no more than one page per factor. If you are found qualified, this information will be heavily relied upon in the rating process. Please provide information in the following order:

1. Knowledge of business management principles, practices and techniques as they relate to small business.
2. Ability to organize and express complex ideas, data and information clearly in writing.
3. Ability to meet and communicate effectively with individuals at all levels within the government, private sector and the public at large.
4. Skill in program review and evaluation.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

You may use any written format you choose to apply for this position. However, your application or resume must include all of the items listed in Optional Form (OF) 612, Optional Application for Federal Employment (available at <http://www.opm.gov/forms/html/of.htm#of612>). Only your application or resume will be used to determine if you meet the minimum qualifications for the job and the grade level(s) for which you are qualified. If your application or resume does not include the required information, you may lose consideration for the job. You should also submit:

- Supplemental statement addressing the quality ranking factors.
- If you are a current or former Federal employee, a copy of your most recent SF 50, Notification of Personnel Action.
- If you are a current or former Federal employee, a copy of your most recent performance appraisal.
- If you claim 5-point veteran preference, submit your DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty. If you claim 10-point veteran preference, submit a SF-15, Application for 10-point Veteran Preference and proof required by that form. The SF-15 is available at <http://www.opm.gov/forms/html/sf.asp>

If you are applying for special selection priority under SBA's Career Transition Assistance Plan (open to surplus SBA employees only) or the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program (see <http://www.opm.gov/ctap/index.asp> for eligibility requirements), you must submit one of the following as proof of your eligibility: reduction-in-force (RIF) separation notice; Notification of Personnel Action (SF 50) showing separation by RIF or removal for declining a directed reassignment or transfer of function outside the local commuting area; certificate of expected separation or other notice that you are surplus employee or eligible for discontinued service retirement; notice from a Federal agency that your injury compensation has been or is being terminated and that it cannot place you; notice from the Office of Personnel Management terminating your disability annuity; or notice from the military or National Guard that you retired under 5 USC 8337(h) or 8456.

If you are eligible for special selection priority based on RIF, declining a directed reassignment or transfer of function outside the commuting area, retiring on the effective date of a RIF or retiring under the discontinued service retirement option, you must also submit a copy of a Notification of Personnel Action (SF 50) which shows the promotion potential of the career or career-conditional position from which you have been or will be separated and a copy of your last performance rating of record.

If you are applying for special selection priority under the Federal Employment Priority Consideration Program for Displaced Employees in the District of Columbia Department of Corrections or Interagency Career Transition Assistance for Displaced Panama Canal Zone Employees, you must submit a copy of your RIF separation notice.

To be found well-qualified for special selection priority by the Small Business Administration, you must meet the minimum qualification requirements for the position, including any selective factors and receive at least two-thirds of the total possible points for the quality ranking factors.

If you wish to be considered under a special appointing authority (e.g., disabled, Veterans Employment Opportunity Act, etc.) you must indicate on your application or resume the authority under which you are applying and include proof of your eligibility.
